Financing of this call

This call is co-financed by four parties:

- The Wiener Philharmoniker generously dedicated their annual Neujahrskonzert philantropy to ME/CFS activities
- The WE&ME Foundation which, was established in 2020 by the Ströck family and is situated in Vienna, Austria, where the family is renowned for their "Ströck" bakeries. The Ströck family and the dedicated WE&ME team are committed to funding groundbreaking research that elucidates the complexities of ME/CFS, and moving closer to effective treatments and a cure.
- In addition, up to two fellowships will be financed by the State of Lower Austria.
- And WWTF.

Up to two additional fellowships can be financed by the State of Lower Austria on top of the regular WWTF budget, if recommended by the international jury.
